St. Francis of Assisi

Dear member of our Petaloo Community,

After a discussion about how we take care of people when they get old, Our middle daughter Sarah asked: " Well who takes care of the animal's ? " "We do." we responded. And she said: "How?" We said, "Let us show you".

So here we are.. There are many wonderful animal sanctuaries & shelters. We have known Best Friends Animal Society for years, but never had an opportunity to make a difference. Now with the success of Petaloo, we are excited to be able to contribute a portion of Petaloo profits to Best Friends.

In time, we would like to be able to aid other animal shelters across the country, and help expand our assistance in more ways than just money. But for now, this is a great start..

With warmest regards,

Jeff & Cheryl Cohen

A word about Best Friends:

Best Friends is working with humane groups all across the country to bring about a time when homeless, unwanted animals are no longer being destroyed in shelters, and when every healthy dog or cat can be guaranteed a good life in a caring home. Best Friends provides information, assistance, and training to people and grassroots groups who are looking to create no-kill communities. <http://www.bestfriends.org>
